

Company Name:
Traveling Wisdom Cookies

Slogan:
Insight into Sweetness

Company Intro:
Sharing the knowledge and insight we learn from the road with you, along with a delicious treat. Our cookies come from anywhere and everywhere: ovens in the north and south, baking sheets from east to west. Wherever we go, we take our scrumptious recipe and wisdom with us, and send them out to you. We never stay in one place for long, and neither do our cookies. Come see us in person when we visit your town, or order wisdom cookies from us no matter where we are, through the web. Keep up with us via our blog, as we will share the wisdom we learn on the road.
